

Many leaders and their teams struggle to make and keep critical decisions. Use this model during your meetings to improve team alignment and focus.

Share Info

People exchange ideas freely without challenge or debate. This requires active listening.

Debate Respectfully

People advocate a position while maintaining an open mind during the discussion.

Confirm Decision

Team decides and confirms decision through consensus, majority or leader dictate.

Execute As One

Everyone actively supports decision regardless of any previous disagreement.