

Women Leaders

Uncover the power of authentic leadership. Find your true voice.

This program cultivates and strengthens self-leadership skills that lead to greater organizational team effectiveness by allowing participants to:

1. Delve into self-reflection and analyze socialization to understand societal imprints on personal and professional identities.
2. Address and navigate the systemic challenges that impact women's leadership journeys.
3. Explore and integrate the inherent strengths of feminine energy in leadership practices.
4. Harmonize feminine and masculine energies for a well-rounded, holistic leadership approach.
5. Establish actionable plans and collaborate on strategies to nurture personal and professional growth.

Duration: 1.5 days to 2 days. Options are available to spread out the time.

Class Size: Limited to 25 participants.

Location: Women Leaders goes where you are! We can deliver the seminar on-site, off-site, virtually, or anywhere.

Who should attend? Women in leadership positions or on track to leadership position.

Real People. Real Impact.

"Fearlessness is not the absence of fear. It's the mastery of fear. It's all about getting up one more time than you fall down."

Arianna Huffington
CEO of Thrive Global

Power Up Your Leadership. Harness Your Potential and Influence Others.

In this program, participants will:

- Discover the different types of power and how they impact their leadership style and outcomes.
- Reflect on their own power journey and identify the moments when they felt empowered, disempowered, or empowered others.
- Develop a set of practical skills and strategies to access their power and use it for positive change.
- Experience deep learning and transformation through interactive exercises, peer feedback, and personal coaching.

Step into your power, own your story. Lead your way

Women Leaders is an experiential program that will allow you to heal what stands between you and your truest voice to define how you show up when you lead.

Embark on a transformative journey of self-discovery, empowerment, and authentic leadership.

READY TO GET STARTED?

(904) 249-4410 information@stopatnothing.com